COTTAGE PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY,
On First St., Near Corner of Spring, LOS ANGELES.
If you want the best pictures at Eastern prices, visit the Cottage Art Gallery.
We are all kinds of pictures, from a Rembrandt to a Gaiety, Cartes, Boutons or Medallions. We make "dead ends" of them. Then you should all remember that the Cottage is the place to get a first-class picture to represent your place.
You can get a heap of pictures for a small amount of cash. We will work up these things—"You know how it is yourself." So if you come to us, and on having pictures bent, we'll warrant satisfaction. We'll never charge a cent. You've no dark alleys to go through—The street cars pass our door; No weary, winding stairs to climb—We're all on the first floor. In lighting, posing, finishing, We understand the art. So even a body come and get a copy of your photo. mrls tf

Los Angeles Herald
CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.
THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1875.
SEVERAL papers in this State are advocating the abolishment of the office of County Treasurer. They argue that the funds could be deposited in banks or with other parties who would give bonds for the safe keeping of the funds. It would be a good thing for some banks, which would manage to keep the money so very safe that the people would never see it again. We had rather have the bonds of a Treasurer than those of banks that would be created for the sole purpose of becoming the depository of the county funds. But why start in so low down the list? There are any number of banks who would be too happy to take charge of the national funds and the money in the State Treasury might be deposited and lost in the same way. Reform such as doing away with County Treasurers will materially assist in the work of robbing the people.
Cheap Fuel.
Some experiments were made with a Wilcox Lifter at the Race Grounds yesterday afternoon, an account of which will be of interest to a large proportion of the residents of this valley. The object of the experiments was to ascertain the cost of supplying the race track with an abundance of water. The lifter was one of three thousand gallons per hour capacity, and the fuel used was the common coarse brea, which is delivered in the city at four dollars per ton. In one hour and forty minutes five thousand gallons of water were raised seventy-one feet. To run the lifter while it performed this work one hundred and forty pounds of brea was consumed, costing twenty-eight cents. This trial shows that with the Wilcox Lifter one thousand gallons of water may be raised seventy-one feet at a fuel cost of less than six cents. Some months ago the HERALD claimed that this lifter, with brea fuel, was by far the cheapest and best method by which our farmers could irrigate their land. The trial yesterday demonstrates the correctness of our position. Brea in exhaustless quantities is found in different parts of this valley, and with the proper furnaces for burning it, becomes the cheapest and most economical fuel for raising water that can be had. The results we have given above were obtained by a fair trial, and the facts were furnished the HERALD by Mr. BURNS, Secretary of the Agricultural Society, who was present and assisted in making the experiments.
Public Sentiment—Its Tendencies.
"No culprit ever felt the halter draw With good opinion of the law."
The above is a venerable truism in criminal jurisprudence, and, with slight variation, is equally applicable to political parties of the present day. Touch upon truth and fact, however lightly, which unfavorable affect either the one or the other, and the whole pack, Tray, Blanche, Sweetheart and all are slipped loose, and will drive you to cover unless you are able to distinguish the yelp of the cur from the sonorous baying of the bound. We are forcibly reminded of this whenever we, as an independent journalist, feel it to be our duty to animadvert upon the delinquencies of the present Administration. Some of its partisans, without the ability to meet the issue, or the ingenuity of apologists, resort to ribaldry and evasion to ward off the effect and lull the people into repose. They even invoke the philosophy of Toots—that whether governed by King, Kaiser, or President, the world is destined to the same budget of weal and woe—forgetting, probably, that Toots was a mere creation of fancy, and designed as a fool, and that these words were put in his mouth as evidence of success in portraying the character. When a people become satisfied with this doctrine they are a ripe harvest for the first ambitious CÆSAR who may feel disposed to thrust in his sickle. But we premise that it will be a long time before the American people will embrace this doctrine, notwithstanding the efforts of the adherents of the present administration to educate them up to the point. The proud boast of the American citizen, whether of native or foreign birth, is their manhood, their freedom and their right to govern themselves. At the same time they are patient and law-abiding, but know full well when patience ceases to be a virtue, and that time is drawing full nigh. Talk of your present parties and partisanship! Without concert or organization, there is at this time a party forming throughout the land as silently and as numerous as the dew drops upon the heather, each finding his affinity in the other and only wanting contact to form a whole, which will cleanse the Augean stables and sweep from high places the vepal herds by whom we are now misgoverned. But, say they, whose ranks are to be depleted to form this new party? We answer, from all parties and ranks—bursting the chains and chains of party discipline, the people will range themselves on the side of constitutional reform—springing like the clannish of Roderick Dhu, from every hamlet, bush and even the very ground, in such numbers and with such determination as to cause the cheek of villainy to blanch before them. With a country fronting upon the two great oceans, embracing every climate from the torrid to the frigid zone, abounding in the elements of every wealth that contributes to the comfort and happiness of man, with an industrious, intelligent and energetic people to develop them, and, until recently, occupying a front rank among the nations of the earth; with sound credit; a mercantile marine that whitened every sea with its sails and a formidable navy to protect it, and with an industrious, prosperous and contented people. And what are we to-day? A divided people; an imbecile Government, whose only policy seems to be to maintain itself in power by keeping open or widening the breach, an enormous debt and without credit; decayed mercantile marine and no navy to protect it; an army used to intimidate the people and control elections instead of garrisoning our forts and protecting our frontiers; a swarm of tax-gatherers, whose immense draughts upon the people are swallowed up immediately or by political vampires at Washington; an empty treasury, and discontent and paralysis in every branch of industry, and without a single measure emanating from the Government calculated to arrest our downward progress. But, says the partisan, this picture is too dull and dreary; let's seek repose beneath the philosophy of Toots! Will they, confining themselves to truth and fact, draw a fairer one? If they can we will turn our face to the wall and thenceforward seek inspiration from theirs. Nor has private enterprise escaped the effects of the general demoralization of the government. Place upon the European market the most plausible local enterprise, and how is it received? We have confidence, say they, in the plausibility of the project—it will open up to settlement and commerce vast regions of country, and will pay well upon the investment, and we have confidence in your energy and good faith, but we have lost confidence in your Government and we cannot embark in the enterprise. Do we want further proof of this than the fact that gold is quoted at a premium of 16 1/2 per cent. in New York. But we must patiently await the ideas of November, '76, the centennial anniversary of the birth of the Nation, by which time the people will be fully prepared to speak, and political war-horses of both parties invited to take a back seat.

More Racidity in Louisiana.
NEW ORLEANS, March 30th.—The general appropriation bill, approved by the Governor and promulgated today, is declared by the Lieutenant-Governor and Speaker Hahn to be a gross forgery. They declare the bill approved is not the bill they signed at all. They ask the Secretary of State to revoke its promulgation and the Attorney-General to take steps to discover and punish the perpetrators of the fraud. It is alleged that the bogus bill increases the appropriations about $130,000.
The Catholics and the Common School Fund.
NEW YORK, March 29th.—The Vicar-General, Quinn, has appointed what the Tribune characterizes as an able and representative committee to consider with the Committee of the Board of Education on what terms parochial schools may be admitted to the benefits of the common school system, subject to its laws as regards the course of instruction, method of discipline and general management.
Raising Funds for John Mitchell's Widow.
SCRANTON, Pa., March 29th.—The Irish-born portion of the population of this city and vicinity have resolved to honor the memory of John Mitchell by abandoning a street parade and raising funds for his widow.
Another Increase of Railroad Freight Threatened.
NEW YORK, March 29th.—Another increase is threatened in overland railroad freights from twenty to thirty-three per cent. on all classes above letter B. Freight agents will make no contracts beyond the day for which the contract is made.
Foreign News.
MADRID, March 30th.—Gen. Concha, late Captain-General of Cuba, has addressed a petition to the king, accusing General Jovellar, his predecessor, and the new Minister of War of being the cause of the lack of discipline in the Spanish army in Cuba, and also censuring his conduct as Minister of War. The petition has created a profound sensation. The newspapers are compelled to maintain silence on it.
LONDON, March 31st.—The British Commissioners for the Philadelphia Exposition have sent circulars to 3,000 persons who have taken part in exhibitions and agricultural shows in this country during the last seven years, and also to the Chambers of Commerce and the heads of municipalities in the British Isles. The answers already received indicate that Ireland and the north of England will be well represented at the Centennial.
PARIS, March 30th.—The French Government has agreed to begin its Postal Convention.
L'Univers publishes the Pope's Encyclical. In it an ex-communication is pronounced against the old Catholics of Switzerland, censuring the authorities for protecting them.
A Probable Compromise.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 31st.—It is rumored that the difficulty between Mr. Lick and his trustees is to be settled. The report is that in order to avoid the hazards and costs of a bitter litigation, an arrangement is on foot by virtue of which the trustees and Mr. Lick will join in the execution of a deed to new trustees, which deed will jealously and securely guard the public interests vested under the original trust, and, at the same time, make adequate provision for Mr. Lick's relatives.
Almost a Mob.
HAZELTON, Pa., March 30th.—The mob which left Audenreid this morning from this place was intercepted at Beaver Meadows by a Catholic priest, who persuaded them to return to their homes.

Indian Fight and a Shower.
YREKA, March 31st.—The Yreka Journal this morning contains an account of a fatal shooting affray between Indians on the Klamath river, one of them being a boy who formerly worked for Dick Humphries. He had the reputation of being a desperate character, and three other Indians sought him out with a view of putting him out of the way. On meeting, a fight ensued with rifles. Dick's boy putting a ball through the head of one of his assailants, who fired at the same moment, the ball passing through the boy's body. Both died instantly. The other Indians mutilated the body of Dick's boy and cut his throat. The head Indians are taking steps to administer Indian justice to the survivors.
We had a rain last week which was of material benefit to the crops in many parts of the county. The streams from the Sierran mountains are higher than at any time previous to this winter. Sunday morning we had another shower, which after some hours charged to snow. The weather is now clear and pleasant.
Accident to a Hotel Coach and Passengers at Salinas.
SALINAS, March 28th.—Another runaway occurred here to-day by the upsetting of the Diamond Hotel coach at the corner of Main and Castorville streets. The coach was loaded at the time and was returning from the railroad depot with passengers, and in making the turn from one street to another it was turned over, the team running at full speed down the street, dragging the coach on its side. All the passengers were more or less bruised. Mr. Abrahams was seriously if not fatally injured, receiving a severe contusion of the brain, which may cause death. The driver, Lou Tynan, was seriously but not fatally injured. The coach is a total wreck, but the horses were not injured.
The Santa Rosa Grange conferred the fourth degree on a class on Wednesday last and celebrated the harvest feast.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1875.

GOLD REPORT.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.
Gold, 116.
Greenbacks—Buying, 88 1/4; selling, 87 1/4.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
Concert to-night.
San Bernardino was favored by a good rain the other day.

The Senator is due to-day with a large cargo of freight and passengers.
All Foot's Day. Look out for bogus pocketbooks.

Mr. M. D. Madegan left yesterday for the San Fernando region on another assessing trip.

Mr. E. F. De Celles, editor-in-chief of La Cronica, left yesterday for a short visit to Santa Barbara.

We learn that the wife of Mr. F. P.
F. Temple was taken seriously ill on Tuesday.

It is reported that the Searls Company are turning out a ton of borax per day at Borax lake.

The timber mills in the vicinity of San Bernardino will soon start up again.

The Pacific sailed yesterday for San Francisco with thirty-three passengers.

The funeral of Judge Morrow took place yesterday from the residence of J. M. Griffith, and was largely attended.

The auction sale of the Woolen Mill Tract will take place to-morrow and Saturday. It is thought by shrewd real estate men that the lots will bring $500 or over apiece.

Another one of those inevitable Council conclaves will take place this evening, when the City Dads will "vex with mirth the drowsy ear of Night."

Eighty acres of first-class agricultural and fruit land within 2 1/2 miles of the city is advertised for sale this morning; price, $40 per acre. A bargain for somebody.

Captain Clark has the necessary machinery for boring an oil well on his claim in Grapevine cañon, North of San Fernando. The apparatus will be ready for the commencement of operations in a few days.

The Woolen Mill Tract can now be reached by the hill route. The streets are open and in fine condition. By passing up Temple street to Hope, and along Hope to Third, the tract is reached.

Our evening cotemporary says that money is abundant in Los Angeles.
We do not doubt it. A man can pick up a handful of twenties almost anywhere on the street, and need not bother himself with the fives and tens that come raining down. Of course we refer to rich men.

Mr. A. B. Chapman concluded the sale of two tracts of land from the Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana the other day. The movement inaugurated by the Centinela Company is going bravely forward, and, in a few years, every large ranch in our section will be parceled out in small farms.

A road leading down Hope street from Temple street to the Woolen Mill Tract has been completed. The next thing in order will be the street railroad leading to the same locality by way of Temple and Pearl streets, which project we understand is already well advanced.

In our supplement of Tuesday morning two resolutions of the Common Council were published by mistake—one for the grading of Olive street from Second to Third, and the other regulating the width of streets.
Our citizens will please remember that the resolutions in question have not become laws.

An up-country paper says: "When a girl crops her front hair and pulls it down over her forehead like a Mexican mustang, and then ties a piece of red velvet around her neck, you can wonder at the number of pale-faced young men that throw away their ambition and pass sleepless nights in trying to raise down on their upper lips?"

The concert to be given at Turn-verein Hall to-night will be one of the leading musical events of the season.
Professors Fischer and Schall will furnish talent unsurpassed in the State, while all of our leading amateurs will assist to give variety and interest to the affair. Many reserved seats have already been taken and those remaining will doubtless be secured to-day.
Go early, for there will be a full house.

It was very nearly a sensation.
About 9:30 last night a pistol-shot was heard on the South side of the Court House, and the people in the vicinity rushed out upon the street to discover the cause. An inquiry disclosed the fact that two men had been having an altercation in one of the little shops on Court street. Stepping out upon the sidewalk, one fired off his revolver either in the air or against the brick wall by way of demonstration.
Then both parties walked off in different directions, and there was no bloodshed, no arrest, no coroner's jury, no item.

Go and See for Yourself.
There is a great deal of inquiry about Artesia land. At least twenty persons per day call at the HERALD office for "more information." We have stated all we know about these lands.
We might draw on our imagination and paint a few gardens of paradise down there, but by so doing we should incur the displeasure of the Los Angeles Co-operative Immigration Association, the most liberal terms of payment, and they do not ask any man to take their word for these things. Go to the Secretary, Mr. Holt, and he will furnish you an excursion ticket, free of cost, on which you can go down and examine the land for yourself.

Another Fruit Dryer.

The Star Family Fruit Dryer advertisement will be seen in another column. A model machine, made by the inventor in Missouri, was sent to A.
E. Merrill, who controls the right to make and sell the dryer in this State, was put up and tested yesterday at the residence of E. H. Workman, in the presence of several gentlemen, all of whom pronounced it a perfect success.
Samples of the fruit and vegetables will show for themselves. They are clear and white—almost transparent.
Carrots were cured in forty-five minutes, turnips in fifty-five minutes, and apples in one hour and a half. These dryers can be made cheap and of any capacity to suit purchasers. With the facilities that this machine, together with the Alden process, will furnish our farmers and fruit growers, we predict, the establishment of a market in this city for dried fruits and vegetables that will supply the armies and navies of many countries, and add a hundred per cent. to the net profits of our farmers annually. All such improvements add to the wealth and importance of a country, and we hail them with delight. The fruit season will soon be upon us, and now is the time to order the machines, as it will require weeks for the manufacturers to get them out after they are ordered.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

[Edited by the Teachers of the Public Schools of Los Angeles county.]

Peabody School Fund.
This fund, under the direction of a wise and judicious Board of Managers, is a great advantage to public schools in all the Southern States.
Last year Virginia received the sum of $38,875.

Donations.
The following donations to the High School Cabinet and Library were received Monday:

First. A beautiful collection of postage stamps, by Mr. Choyinski. Specimens of the stamps used in most of the countries in Europe, and even in Egypt, are found in the collection.

Second. A specimen of wood found at a depth of 157 feet below the surface of the ground, in an artesian well, in Artesia, Los Angeles county, by A. T. Hawley, Esq.

Third. Twenty copies of the "Spencer System of Penmanship" and a set of the "Spencerian Charts," by Iverson, Blakeman & Taylor, New York.

Thanks to the donors.

Crowded.
Most of the classes in the High School building, the three in the Spring street school, and the class in the Eighth street school, are so crowded that no more pupils can be admitted into them. This session. It would be unjust to those already admitted, and no favor to new pupils, to add to numbers now greater than the accommodations. Four teachers have between seventy and eighty pupils each, and another has one hundred. Who will say that we do not need more school houses?

Speak Correctly.
Wherever the teacher expresses himself with grammatical accuracy, the pupil rarely commits a blunder of speech, and often speaks with a correctness that would be creditable to more scholarly people. On the contrary, when the teacher fails to express himself precisely or accurately, or speaks in a careless and slipshod manner, the pupil is sure to imitate the error, and the result is a series of errors and expressions that are difficult to correct. Teachers should not overlook the fine opportunities they have of imparting accuracy of expression—one of the great ends of the study of grammar—to their pupils every time they engage in an oral exercise. It is then, whilst the mind is excited and the ardor of the mind aroused, that a skillful teacher can give it the habit of correct expression of thought, fulness in selection of words and facility in the use of an exact and simple phraseology.

Compulsory School Laws.
The Legislatures of the States of Indiana, Ohio and Minnesota have refused to adopt compulsory school laws. It is hardly probable that any other State will encumber its statutes with this law, which is impracticable in this country, however excellent it may be in the monarchical countries of Europe.

State Normal School.
Last week this school graduated forty-five pupils. We are pleased to see the name of Miss Alice Heath, formerly a teacher in our city schools, in the list of graduates.

Teachers' Meeting.
The monthly teachers' meeting will be held Friday afternoon in the Superintendent's office.

New Children.
On Monday children from ten families, just arrived, applied for admission into the city schools.

Rev. Father Walker, of St. Lawrence Church, New York, has preached a sermon in which he says: "The public schools are Godless, the nurseries of vice." He declares he will refuse the sacraments of the Church to Catholics who send their children to them. The Herald, the strongest supporter of the Catholic Church found in the secular press of this country, denounces the doctrine, and calls upon Cardinal McCloskey to resist its author. In this city and county some of the most enthusiastic supporters of public schools are intelligent members of the Catholic Church.

Lease Upham. of the well-known book and publishing house of Payot, Upham & Co., San Francisco, has been sending a few days in the city. He expresses himself as well pleased with our business prospects and with the condition of the public schools.

The scaffold which was loaned by Sacramento to Santa Clara for the execution of Vasquez was returned on Thursday.

Letter from an Old Democrat.

EDITOR HERALD: As there is considerable discussion going on in the journals of the country in regard to the probability of President Grant's third term, I don't think it will require much of a prophet to decide that question in the affirmative. The reasons for such a conclusion are very numerous, and as the people of American people will not create a free discussion of the causes which have brought our country to its present deplorable condition; nor will the journals of the country open their columns to such discussions, because this would open the question as to the cause of the late deplorable struggle between the Northern and Southern States. The North sits in judgment on her own acts and decides that they were in the right. The North also sits in judgment upon the acts of the South and decides that they were in the wrong; and because they have so decided, the Administration has concluded that the South has no Constitutional rights that the Government is bound to respect and they have not only concluded that the South has no Constitutional rights, but they have concluded that the Democrats of the country have no such rights. Consequently we see in Texas Jack Hamilton was elected Governor by a majority of the 13,000 majority, he being a very "loyal" man; but a favorite of Anti-Johnson did not please Grant, and there was enough Hamilton votes thrown out to elect Devie, who was Grant's favorite; and Grant's bayonets sustained Davies in the gubernatorial chair. And in Louisiana we see the same things enacted, and enough votes thrown out in every election to sustain Grant's favorites in office. American people acquiesce in these proceedings, and if Grant is in the minority they will throw out a democratic States enough to continue him in office. And what will the people do? The Republicans will uphold him; the courts are creatures of his own and will uphold him; and if he has a right to do it in the case of Louisiana, he has a right to do it in New York, Pennsylvania or any other State.
The South stands up to vindicate the sovereignty of their States? This would be a strange proceeding indeed. The late war was for the purpose of destroying the sovereignty of the States, and when General Lee surrendered, that sealed the doom of the American Republic. His surrender was a surrender of the sovereignty of the States; it was a surrender of the right of a State to defend itself against an armed invasion by the Federal Government. Well, if the Southern States have no longer a right to defend themselves, if Grant sends an army in the North to dissolve their legislatures, can they claim the right after having fought so long and hard to deprive the Southern States of such a right? After having admitted the State of Georgia to the Union in order to destroy the fourteenth Amendment, they then surrendered the right of a State to defend itself, and when they throw out three or four democratic States on the ground of fraud, intimidation or force, they begin to think that what they have been doing. But, my poor countrymen, the chains are around you and they are not aware of it. Many of our people have lost their liberties years ago, and they know it, and if the American people desire to know whether they have lost their liberties or not, let them attempt to exercise any former Constitutional right, contrary to wishes of the Federal head, and they will know and out of the Territory of the soldier was committed to prison for some violation of the civil law; he was tried by the
